The new front being placed in the establishment of the Joseph Mercantile

Co., gives promise of making this one of the handsomest store rooms in central Kentucky, it is rapidly nearing completion and all possible haste is being made to put on the finishing touches in order to be ready for the fall display of their handsome line of merchandise.

LAND SALE.

Mr. Joshua Hurt purchased of J. W. Tatem a tract of about twenty five acres of land near Fairview church for $1,000. The land purchased adjoins the home place of Mr. Hurt on Back Creek and will afford him an outlet to the pike. Mr. Hurt will immediately begin the erection of a new residence on his purchase, which when completed will be occupied by his son Mr. S. J. Hurt.

BUSY AT POSTOFFICE.

The Postoffice Department has issued an order for the weighing and counting of all mail going out and coming in over rural routes during the month of October, and in consequence Postmaster Eph Brown and his force of clerks and carriers are as busy as bird dogs, working early and late to handle the immense amount of work augmented by the additional duties incurred by this order. Mr. Brown is getting onto the work of the office rapidly and is giving splendid satisfaction to the patrons of the office.

KNOWN FAR AND WIDE.

Lancaster's two splendid flouring mills are doing an immense amount of business. They purchase annually a large proportion of the wheat crop of the county, paying this year from 85 cents to $1.00 per bushel for it. This wheat is made into flour and shipped all over this portion of the state. Such a reputation has been built up for the popular brands of flour made in Lancaster that the mills are compelled to work until far into the night to keep up with their accumulation of orders. Each mill sends a travelling salesman into eastern Kentucky, and the bulk of their product is sent to that section.

MEETING CLOSES.

The meeting which has been in progress at the Christian church for the past two weeks closed on last Sunday night. The series of meetings have been a source of great enjoyment to the people of the entire community, irrespective of their religious belief, and the sermons by Rev. Roy L. Brown have attracted large audiences to every service. The song service under the direction of Mr. Paul Arnold were also very much enjoyed and lent much to the success of the services. About sixty seven souls were brought to Christ during the progress of the meeting, either by letter or confession, and the meetings were undoubtedly of much benefit to the community.

SWEET "TATERS"

PLENTIFUL.

There is an unusually fine yield of sweet potatoes in the county this year of superior size and quality, and with a prospect of a good 'possum crop we have promise of at least a few of the old fashioned dainties.

MRS. W. G. CLARK

UNDERGOES OPERATION.

It will be a source of pleasure to many of my friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Clark to know that Mrs. Clark, who underwent a severe operation last week, is doing nicely and her speedy and rapid recovery seems to be assured.

TWO CROPS FROM

SAME YEARS SEED.

Mr. B. L. Kelly showed us a lot of very fine potatoes which he grew from seed secured from the first planting this year. The tubers are of the "Early Triumph" variety, larger than a hen egg, and he tells us made a good yield, notwithstanding they were never worked or plowed. The early crop of potatoes in this county was almost a complete failure, but those who planted a second crop met with better success and succeeded in raising a very good crop.

DON'T OVERLOOK THE

BOND ISSUE.

The question of the issuance of bonds to the amount of $15,000, for the purpose of repairing the court house is to be submitted to the voters of the county at the November election. Our $75,000 court house stands still in need of repair, in fact it is imperative that the structure be given immediate attention. The vaults are dark and antiquated, as well as unsafe, and as a matter of necessity should be repaired. The need to your property is there and should the structure burn YOUR title would be clouded and you would be put to no little trouble and expense to have it cleared. Study this matter over carefully and vote for the bonds.

SQUIRE JIM BOURNE

PURCHASES PROPERTY.

Squire James P. Bourne has purchased through the real estate firm of Hughes & Swinebroad the handsome suburban home of the late Squire Sam Johnson on Danville Avenue. The place contains about fifteen acres and is one of the handsomest homes about Lancaster. The price paid was private, but it is known to be in the neighborhood of $8,000. Mr. Bourne has already taken possession. We are not informed as to his intentions, but when a single man purchases a large and handsome residence, such as that purchased by Mr. Bourne, the county clerk usually begins to expect a call from him.

MR. ED. PERKINS TIRES

OF MERCHANDISING.

In this issue of the Journal the firm of Denman & Perkins advertise their stock of goods at cost and will quit business. Mr. Denman has accepted a position with a large wholesale shoe firm of Louisville as buyer and manager. Mr. Denman has successfully conducted a shoe business in Nicholasville for twenty years, and it is regretted that this firm will quit business. Mr. Perkins came here from Garrard county about two years ago and has made many friends here. He expects to buy a farm. - Jessamine Journal.

Ed Perkins is an old Garrard county boy and was formerly in partnership with Messrs Alex Walker and Cleve Rose in the Lancaster Mills. We hope and believe that Ed will turn his steps toward his old home in Garrard.

THE TOBACCO OUTLOOK.

The Record has made careful investigation, has made diligent inquiries of those who are in a position to know, and from all sources we are able to gather no information as to the probable price will be offered for the present splendid crop of tobacco now in the hands of the farmers of the county. We can state positively that there is not a man living who can state truthfully as yet just what the crop is going to bring. The war conditions still force an unsettled condition of affairs, and until the situation becomes somewhat clearer, it is impossible to predict just what price may be expected.

In the meantime, we can only advise the farmer to exercise every care in the handling of the crop, for upon the manner in which the crop is handled, regardless of what the market price may be, depends the price he will receive for his particular crop. If ten cents is the top price, and your crop has been properly handled, then you will receive ten cents for your crop; if twenty five cents is the top price, the same rule will prevail. Upon the other hand if your crop is badly and carelessly handled, no matter how good it may be, you may expect the lowest price which is being paid.

Come in and Pay your Laundry bill.

UNNAMED RELIGIOUS SECT

HOOLDING CONVENTION

NEAR LANCASTER.

Our constitution gives to everyone the right to worship God in accordance with the dictates of their own conscience, and we have neither the desire nor intention of either interfering or criticizing anyone in the exercise of this prerogative.

For the last few years a little band of worshipers have been gathering in different parts of the county, at each others houses, in schoolhouses, often in the open air, or wherever they might, to worship God according to their belief and teachings. This small band of a few years ago has grown gradually until now perhaps three hundred souls are numbered in its following.

They have been criticised, often adversely, called "Mormons", "Holy Rollers" and other names, all of which were equally distasteful to them. However they were not daunted from their worship by the opinion of the world, and they seem to be continually gathering strength.

They are now holding what they term a "convention" or "special Meeting", on the premises of Mr. Hunter House, about three miles from Lancaster on the New Danville pike, and delegates are there from far and near, Tennessee, Alabama, Illinois and far off Canada. They came unostentatiously, on foot, on horse back and on the trains. A representative of the Record visited the meeting on Sunday afternoon, and found more than 300 people camped at the meeting place. Clean comfortable tents afforded sleeping quarters as well as dining room and kitchen. Reaching there shortly after the noon hour, we were courteously invited to dine with them.

Three services were held during the day, and at the conclusion of the afternoon service, one of the speakers announced that there would be services at 7 o'clock in the evening, and that no one need leave the grounds, that they would be glad to feed all who would care to stay and eat with them.

Their services were marked with the utmost simplicity, and were absolutely free from any fanatical actions, or anything that would indicate that they were not a body of religious people, deeply intent upon their worship. Every member carried a bible, and in looking over the audience we were surprised to see many citizens of the county whom we had known in former years to continually disregard the laws of God, and to frequently violate those of man, and the thoughts came to us that if these people succeeded in recalling people of this class, they were undoubtedly doing a good work for the Master. Their services differed somewhat from the services usually heard in our churches, but we were unable to find any grounds for the various accusations which we have heard against them.

As to their creed or doctrine, from its tenor we are satisfied that it has nothing in common with the Catholic religion, and from a remark by one of their speakers, bitterly scathing as to the Mormons, we were assured it was not in sympathy with that church.

They are extremely reticent as to their doctrine or manner of worship, and frequent questioning of those who seemed to be in authority elicited the sole reply that they were "followers of the meek and lowly Nazarene". They teach humility in all things, and follow their teachings to the letter. We heard three speakers, one of whom appeared to be Irish, while the other two were apparently either Scotch or of that descent. They were unusually intelligent men and presented their views in a clear and concise manner, and in such simple language that the humbles of their followers might understand. The meeting was in progress for three days of last week and closed Monday, when we are told the leaders folded their paraphernalia and departed for some other place to hold a meeting.

Much has been said and but little written about these people, the majority of those who criticised not caring to commit their ideas about to print.

The people who are connected with this new creed, church, or whatever it may chance to be called, are law abiding citizens, they attend to their own affairs, are good citizens, are not askers of alms, and we are inclined to the belief that they should be left undisturbed, even from the criticism of the idle curious.

"WE NEVER MISS

THE WATER

'Til The Well Goes Dry."

A dividing wall between the two boilers at the water works plant fell on last Monday night, practically putting both boilers out of commission. It has become necessary to cut off the water during repairs. Supt. Herron only maintaining sufficient steam in case of fire or emergency. The repairs are being rushed as rapidly as possible and it is hoped to be able to turn on the water this Thursday afternoon. In the meantime we are learning a valuable lesson as to the value of our water plant.

Mrs. J. W. Pumphrey, Danville, St., Lancaster, Ky., says: "I suffered a great deal from backache and couldn't sleep well. On several occasions my back became so painful and weak that I was unable to do my housework. Being advised to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial, I did so, procuring a supply at Frisbie's Drug Store (now R. E. McRoberts & Son's Drug Store). They helped me from the first and I was soon relieved, I gladly confirm what I said some years ago recommending Doan's Kidney Pills."

Every trace of dandruff is removed with one application, the hair roots are nourished and stimulated to grow new hair, itching scalp and falling hair gone—your hair becomes soft, fluffy, abundant and radiant with life and beauty.

Mrs. W. H. Clarke of Central City, Ky., for many years suffered from disorders of the stomach. She tried many treatments with but little encouragement.

Mr. Clarke induced her to try Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy. She got results right away. Then he wrote:

"The medicine has done my wife a world of good, and I feel that it will cure her. I intend to keep on until she is completely cured, as you have been doing her more good than any one has ever done her, and she has been suffering with her stomach for years. I am glad I was told of your remedy."

WITH THE LIVE STOCK.

The size of an animal has much to do with the gain secured, and other things being equal, a young growing animal will make a greater gain from a bushel of corn or a given amount of food than one near maturity.

Skimmilk makes cheap pork, mutton or beef. There is nothing better than skimmilk for young animals and when used in connection with grass and a little grain makes meat economically.

A young and growing colt requires something more than mere tilling. It must have nutrition, tissue building and blood making.

Lounging along in the harness is bad for any horse, young or old. It is a sure sign of a slovenly driver. Either drive or let it alone.

Take every precaution to gain the confidence of the ewes after they are put in the barn for the winter.

FEEDING THE COLT FOR DEVELOPMENT

[Prepared by United States Department of Agriculture]

A question similar to the following is sometimes propounded by farmers who have not had much experience in raising colts: "Will a colt which is properly fed and cared for make a larger and better horse than one that is fed on corn and stover through its first winter; or will he just make himself more quickly in the former case?"

It would be well for all farmers who are now producing, or who intend to produce in the future one or more colts each season to ponder on the above question. It may be the idea of some men that a colt will make a good horse whether he be fed well or left to shift for himself as best he can, provided he is allowed sufficient time in the making. The proper growth and development of the colt depends just as much on the nature of the feed given it as any other growing thing, and if any farmer wishes to indulge in a bit of expensive carelessness, he cannot do it more easily than to neglect the feed of his colts.

After the young colt begins to investigate his mother's feed box at feeding time he should be provided with a

In no class of farm animals is the use of pure bred sires so important as in the case of the colt. The use of inferior grade sires is responsible for the great numbers of nondescript horses continually being sold in our public horse markets. The use of the high grade pure bred sire is absolutely essential in improving our market types of horses. The illustration shows a pure bred Percheron mare that was a prize winner last fall.

box of his own and fed separately about all the ground oats and corn he wants twice a day. But it is usually after he is weaned, at a time when he can best utilize a liberal grain ration, that he fares the hardest. If his feed is what it should be, he will continue to grow steadily and develop into a good boned, well muscled horse. But if he is poorly fed, he fails to "grow off" right, he becomes stunted and his allowance of "corn and stover" has a telling effect when spring comes through his poor health, ragged appearance and drooping spirits. He will not only grow more slowly but the chances are against his ever becoming the horse he would otherwise have made.

Silage For Steers.

Experiments at several stations during the past five years have proved beyond question the value and economy of corn silage in the ration for fattening steers. Silage fed steers have made the heaviest and cheapest gains, have attained the highest finish during the feeding period and have sold for the most money on the market. In five extensive trials at the Indiana experiment station steers with silage an important part of their feed have shown an average advantage of about $7.50 per head over those finished on dry feed. Moreover the very best and cheapest dry rations have failed to equal a good silage ration either in amount or cheapness of gains.

Raise Feeders at Home.

Raise feeders at home is the advice of Dean Burnett of the Nebraska college of agriculture. The statement was offered as the only solution for the scarcity of beef. Even though the present day land values are high he argued that if the best use is made of all roughage and if other good business management is exercised, beef may be grown at a profit on high priced land.

An Up to Date Matrimonial Method

By OSCAR COX

"Well, I declare!" exclaimed Kate Goodwin.

"What is it?" asked her friend, Clara Beall.

"If that isn't the most monumental piece of impudence I ever heard of!"

"Tell me what it is."

"You know that red headed, freckled, loose jointed Alf Woodbridge?"

"Yes."

"Well, he's sent me a printed circular stating that he's in the market for a wife. He says he's up for competition, a prize. Just think of it! He'll marry the girl who passes the test examination in those things that are requisite in a wife."

"Do you mean to say that he has had the assurance to do such a thing?"

"I do."

"He hasn't sent me one of his circulars. If he did I'd send it right back to him."

"H'm! Better wait till you get one of 'em. He says that only a few of the most desirable young ladies of the town will be invited to compete."

"Worse and worse. I wonder that he hasn't died of conceit before this."

"Conceited persons never die of that disease; they seem to thrive on it."

"Of course you won't take any notice of his circular."

"Certainly not, but there's one thing I'd like to know—that is, if any of the girls so demean themselves as to fall in with his idea, which one of them will get the—"

"Prize. Just think of that fellow offering himself as a prize!"

"I'll tell you what I have in mind to do."

"What?"

"I've a mind to fill in his questions just to see what comes of it."

"Can't you find that out without pandering to his silly conceit?"

"No; he says that no information will be given any girl who has not been invited to compete and does not enter the race."

"Race—oh heavens! Don't you know that the girl who wins will let it be known even if she submits to the indignity for fun or to punish him?"

"Well, I'm going to pretend to be a candidate, and if I win I shall just tell him what I think of him."

"That's a good idea. I believe I'll do so too."

There were a dozen eligible girls in the town, and she received the circular. The six who were left out were furloughs. Every one of them pronounced Woodbridge's impudence unbearable. The six who were invited seemed to have various opinions of Woodbridge's act. Some considered it unpardonable, some pronounced it very funny, and one or two girls with advanced views considered it a very practical way of getting a wife. They said they had a mind to select husbands in the same way.

One morning Mr. Woodbridge was surprised at receiving through the mail a note inclosing a list of printed questions filled in writing. The note said that the sender considered his competitive examination for a wife "perfectly brutal," but that underneath it all was a basis of common sense.

"I'll cowhide those fellows," remarked Mr. Woodbridge, red as a beet. "I didn't suppose when they threatened to perpetrate that joke on me that they would have the hardhood to do it."

The next morning Woodbridge received another set of examination papers and a set in the afternoon. Each girl who responded had an especial excuse for doing so.

"This is getting interesting," remarked Woodbridge to himself. "What excellent reason these girls have for competing! After all, what's wrong in the idea? Marriages are made in all sorts of ways. Why not by competitive examination? In this age of marriages, experimental marriages, in which both husband and wife are to be bosses, marriages without ceremony and marriage till the contracting parties are tired of each other, why not go a step further and have marriages on examination?"

In the last set of examination papers Mr. Woodbridge received all the questions were scratched out and new ones inserted. The new ones were so worded as to constitute a virtual examination of the man. The lady enclosed the paper in a note stating that she considered the plan admirable, but the questions were all wrong. Mr. Woodbridge considered his examination satisfactory she would be happy to marry him at once. She had a brand new idea of the marriage ceremony. The couple were to be photographed standing beside each other holding hands. She objected to anything being said on the occasion since matrimonial promises, all the world knew, did not mean anything.

Woodbridge burst into a laugh at this form of marriage. He wrote a reply to each one of the young ladies who had sent in papers stating that there had been a reaction toward modesty in him. He would do a bit of courting with the winner, and if she accepted him the result of the examination would be known by the announcement of his engagement with her.

This set the girls agog till one day it was announced that Alfred Woodbridge was engaged to be married to Miss Kate Goodwin.

Woodbridge gave his friends who had perpetrated the joke upon him a surprise as an acknowledgment of his gratitude for being instrumental in his securing so much happiness.

Even the most ardent supporters of the licensed liquor traffic in Kentucky admit that the recent elections show a very pointed trend toward state wide prohibition in the state in the no very distant future.

Straws show which way the wind blows, and within the past ten days there has been a terrific gale, and it was full of straw, and it was surely a "dry" wind. When nine out of twelve counties voting give decisions against the licensed sale of liquor, it most assuredly indicates that the discontinuance of the liquor traffic in Kentucky is near at hand, and it behoves the man who has been accustomed to gather his livelihood from this source to seek some other business without delay.

From present indications it seems that state wide prohibition in Kentucky is in sight. The forces behind this movement are gathering strength as they go, and it will only be a matter of a few years when the saloon will be a thing of the past in the state. Already 106 out 129 counties in the state are dry and when the question of state-wide is submitted to the voters, there is not a shadow of a doubt in the mind of the thinking, observing man but that it will carry overwhelmingly. And that this time is not far off no one can doubt. The advocates of the liquor cause have succeeded thus far in staving off the matter off, by every known pretext, technicalities, delaying legal proceedings and any means in their power, but this course of procedure can but delay the joining of the issue, it must come, and when it does come, Kentucky will sweep like a whirlwind into the column of "dry" states. Who can doubt it?

BETTER PAY YOUR TAXES.

The attention of those of our readers who live in Lancaster is called to the ordinance published in this week's issue of the Record requiring city taxes to be paid on or before December 1st, else a penalty of 6 per cent will be added. This collection of penalty is not optional with the Marshal, he is required by law to collect it. If you fail to pay your taxes in time do not blame the Marshal for adding the penalty, there is no way of getting around paying.

ROBERT STRANGE

ADMITTED TO BOND.

Robert Strange, the negro who shot and wounded Chief of Police Herron, some time ago, has been admitted to bond for his appearance at the November term of the Garrard Circuit Court. His bond was fixed at $250, with Attorney R. H. Tomlinson as surety.

Strange was tried as the recent term of court with a mis-trial as a result.

CHARGED WITH MALICIOUS CUTTING AND WOUNDING.

Messrs Henry Teater and Howard Walker, two respectable farmers of the Buckeye section, had an altercation over a trivial affair, and as a result Teater came to town and swore out a warrant for Walker charging him with malicious cutting and wounding with intent to kill. Walker will have an examining trial before Judge Arnold Friday.

FISHERMEN HAVING GREAT LUCK AND FINE OUTING.

The fishermen, Messrs Smith, Frishie, Farris and Elkin are reporting a fine outing. They say both the Cumberland and Rockcastle rivers are in excellent condition for fishing and they are "catching them as fast as they can pull them out". Rev. Smith preached last Sunday at Charity Pointers home, and they came from far and near to hear him. John and Bob led the singing and Fred passed around the hats.

LEXINGTON LIMITS NUMBER OF BARREL HOUSES.

The City Commissioner of Lexington have adapted an amendment to the liquor license law, whereby the number of barrel houses, or liquor houses that sell, not less than a quart, to eight, the number of houses of this description now existing there, and increasing the license from $250, to $500, per year.

A wholesale liquor license which also goes with these characteristics of barrel houses up to $750, per year, the same as saloons.

It is understood that this action was taken to prevent the saloon men from territory which has recently voted "dry" from coming to Lexington and opening up bottling or barrel houses, as it was hinted that several from Paris, Winchester and other points had such action in view.

DEMOCRATS OF GARRARD COUNTY

Well Organized And Active Campaign To Be Waged.

The democrats of Garrard county have been well organized, Mr. H. C. Kaufman has been chosen as Chairman of the campaign committee, and he in turn has appointed three of the leading democrats in each precinct on his staff, and a most aggressive campaign is contemplated.

Absolute harmony prevails in the democratic ranks in this county, and with Mr. Kaufman as Chairman and his splendid corps as assistants, it is hoped and believed that a rousing majority will be rolled up in November for the entire ticket.

MCWILLIAMS-LANHAM.

In his office at the court house on Wednesday afternoon, Judge Clayton Arnold in his usually impressive manner performed the ceremony uniting Mrs Minnie McWilliams and Elmer Lanham in the bonds of Matrimony. The bride is 24 and the widow of the late James McWilliams, while the groom is 21 and a farmer. Both reside near Bryantsville.

The wedding was quiet, on account of the recent bereavement in the family, only the nearest relatives and friends being present.

The bride looked lovely in her dress of white satin with shadow lace over-dress and her only attendant was the flower girl, little Miss Lula Re Veal in white dress with blue ribbons and carrying a bouquet of white roses and ferns.

The bride's traveling suit was of black taffeta silk and after the ceremony the bridal couple left for a trip to Mammoth Cave and from there to Indiana where they will go to house-keeping at Mr. Kuhn's country home near Shellyville.

The bride is attractive and popular and many friends regret her leaving Lexington and have the best wishes for the happiness of the couple—Lexington Leader.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Lydia Murphy, a former resident of Garrard county and is a very attractive young lady. The Record joins many Garrard county friends in congratulations and best wishes.

LATEST FASHION TENDENCIES AS EXPRESSED IN THE FALL STYLES

In general, the styles of this season are more becoming than they have been for many a day, and are distinguished by graceful lines.

The new silhouette shows a tendency toward the normal waistline, and is given variety in the suits by the use of the cape coat and the moderately fitted coat, and by the many styles of skirts.

The suit coats this season are particularly interesting. They are longer than last season's models. The long tunic accentuates the length of the coat in many cases and gives the length of line so sought for this season.

Many skirt, are made with tunics, either straight or plaid. The under or lower skirt is just wide enough to permit comfortable walking. The skirts are somewhat shorter, too.

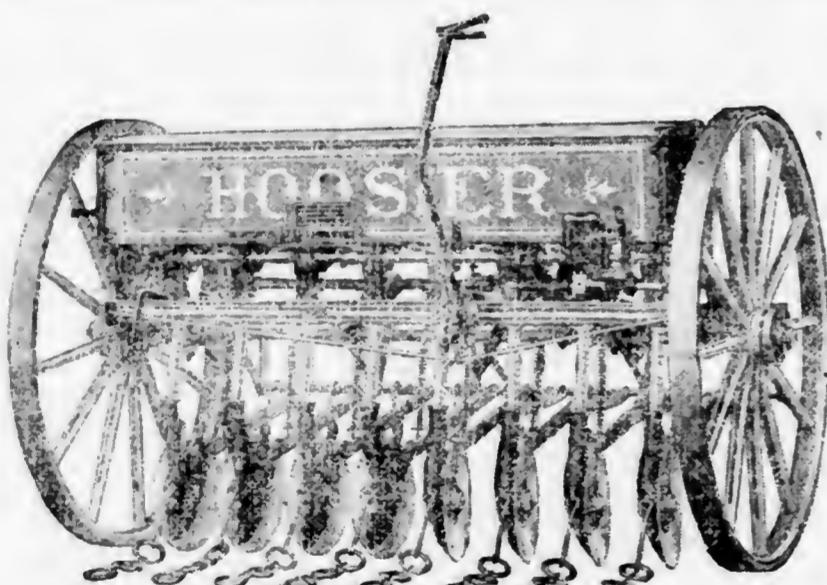

A decided feature of the separate coat will be the cape-coat, developed in a variety of novel forms. All have the popular flare effect at the bottom.

Sleeves show greater eccentricity than ever—the set-in sleeve is back again, together with variations of the kimono and cape effect.

In collars—the Gladstone and new Military collars are the most popular, and it's remarkable how well they have been developed in the heavier materials.

The Biscuit models on display at your store embody these new style features in a way wonderfully becoming, and not in the least extreme. Come in and stay as long as you like looking over these charming styles. We'll be glad to help you select the one that suits you best.

Christian church, Evangelist Roy L. Brown, of Bellefontaine, Ohio terminating his series of discourses by a most able address on the "Progress of a Century" to a congregation that not only filled the main auditorium but overflowed into the annex of the building while many not able to find seats stood at the doors and windows.

The closing Bible service under the directorship of Elder Brown was unique in its every phase and was quite an innovation for the people of this section. An award was offered for the first pupil to reach Sunday School, the result being that an ambitious lad, William Embry, arrived an hour and a half before the opening exercises; an award was given for the oldest member of the church attending the Bible School, Mr. Thomas Anderson, 86 receiving that distinction as the oldest male member, and Mrs. William G. Anderson, 81, as the oldest woman present. A gift was also bestowed on the largest family in attendance, the prize going to Mr. and Mrs. John Oaks who with their 8 children including 2-year-old twins, comprise a family circle of 10; an award went to the youngest individual at Sunday School this being pinned upon the swaddling clothes of a 4-weeks-old infant, William Lear Lane. The number of accessions to the church was 67, and including the religious fervor and spiritual awakening generally engendered among the entire church membership, the revival is regarded as one of the most successful ever held by the Disciples of Christ at this place.

Mr. Leonard Miller of the Lancaster Record was here Monday soliciting ads for that good paper. The editor of The Messenger took "Len" in his office when he was a small boy, with one gallus and a sore toe. Young Miller was possessed of untiring energy, plenty of good sense and the soul of humor. As the result, he is today foreman on the Record, owns a hundred acre farm and no man in Lancaster stands higher in the estimation of the people. This shows what honesty, good breeding and energy will accomplish.

Mr. Smith will devote his attention to his Commercial School, which is one of the best and most liberally patronized in the country. Within the past few days students from nine different states have matriculated in Gen. Smith's school.

Somerset won over the L. H. S. Food Ball team, on the turners ground Friday evening by the score of 17 to 0. Lancaster boys put up a valiant game against their opponents and the victory mostly due to Somerset was by their outwitting our team by 36 lbs. and also on account of Lancaster's "Star".

Full back Wood Wilmoth, being out of the game, on account of a sore foot, Somerset has one of the fastest teams in Central Ky. and played good ball. They treated us very kindly, and one trip was indeed a pleasure one.

HAVE YOU CATARRH?
It's a Dangerous Disease—Hyomei is the Effective Remedy.

Catarrh, which is indicated by sniffling, frequent colds and crusts in the nose is a serious disease and if not checked surely spreads to the delicate lining of the air passages, and frequently destroys the hearing.

To cure catarrh you must have something that will quickly reach the diseased tissues, kill the germs, and drive out the poison.

Hyomei is just such a remedy: Being a mixture of antiseptic oils that you breathe through a small inhaler its health-restoring medication cannot help going direct to the raw and inflamed lining of the nose and throat, quickly relieving that choked-up feeling, stopping the unclean discharges, and healing the sore spots—you breathe freely. Even the worst cases respond at once.

There is nothing for the treatment of catarrh that is easier, more pleasant or so satisfying as Hyomei. R. E. McRoberts sells it on the "No-cure-no-pay" plan.

Mr. and Mrs. Ryland Isom while returning from Lancaster were thrown precipitately to the ground by the buggy coming uncoupled. The horse deliberately walked on with the two wheels, leaving the occupants behind unhurt.

What Would You Do?

There are many times when one man questions another's actions and motives. Men act differently under different circumstances. The question is, what would you do right now if you had a severe cold? Could you do better than to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended by people who have used it for years and know its value. Mrs. O. E. Sargent, Peru, Ind., says, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is worth its weight in gold and I take pleasure in recommending it." For sale by all dealers.
